VACATION.COM ADDS CREATIVE DESTINATIONS EUROPE

New Preferred Supplier strengthens Vacation.com's luxury lineup while connecting members' clients to the most experienced tour guides throughout Europe.

Alexandria, Va. (February 18, 2009) – Vacation.com®, North America's leading travel services marketing organization, welcomes new Preferred Supplier Creative Destinations Europe, a Lake Mary, Fla.-based company operating since 1993.

Creative Destinations Europe is a European tour wholesaler specializing in customized FITs, private transfers, group tours, religious pilgrimages, shore excursions, cruise extensions, and live online hotel reservations. This extensive travel lineup provides Vacation.com members with even more luxury products to meet the needs of their upscale, higher-demand clients.

The company relies on experience to provide quality travel products. Their staff includes former tour guides and managers with firsthand knowledge of European tour operators, allowing them to personally select the most knowledgeable and highly-rated guides.

“Creative Destinations Europe has extensive experience in the European market,” said Steve Tracas, Vacation.com's president & CEO. “Our members can rely on them to provide their clients with a superior vacation experience to an incredible range of destinations.”

“Creative Destinations Europe is delighted to join Vacation.com,” said Sheila Swinard, president of Creative Destinations Europe Inc. “Our new partnership coincides with the launch of our new Web site, which was designed to assist travel agents with their European tour planning. We look forward to meeting and working with Vacation.com travel agents throughout the coming year.”

The Cayman Connection and Caribbean Selections, two current Vacation.com Preferred Suppliers, are subsidiaries of Creative Destinations Europe, Inc.

Vacation.com members can visit AgentNet to learn more about Creative Destinations Europe. All other agents can visit www.JoinVacation.com for more information on all the benefits Vacation.com provides.
