ALEXANDRIA, VA (April 27, 2009) – Vacation.com®, North America's leading travel services marketing organization, can now offer its members better discounts on a wider range of essential business services and supplies thanks to recent enhancements by Preferred Supplier Business AdvantEdge.

An association member benefit provider that has negotiated contracts with Fortune 500 companies and other service suppliers, Business AdvantEdge offers Vacation.com members substantial discounts on office equipment and supplies, communication services, travel printing, payment services and more.

“Being a member of Vacation.com not only increases an agency's commission levels and improves their marketing reach, but also it lowers their everyday costs thanks to our Business AdvantEdge program,” said Stephen McGillivray, Vacation.com's vice president of Marketing and Public Relations.

Member agencies can access discounts from a wide variety of companies they use everyday, including shipping with Fed-Ex and UPS, office equipment and computers from Hewlett-Packard, payroll processing with ADP, supplies and furniture from Office Depot, mobile phones from T-Mobile and TravelCell, hotel and destination information from STAR Service Online and Weissmann Reports, and more.

Added McGillivray, “Operating an agency involves numerous relationships with many businesses. Thankfully our members can rely on Business AdvantEdge to save them money when using these services.”
